

PREVENTING ABUSE TOGETHER

THE PRAESIDIUM HELPLINE 866.607.SAFE (7233)

Great American Specialty Human Services teamed up with Praesidium to provide a consultation resource to help your organization strengthen its abuse prevention and response efforts. These resources are included with the purchase of your policy.

In most cases of sexual misconduct or abuse within an organization, individuals report having seen or heard something suspicious, inappropriate, or of concern, yet failed to take action or did not know what to do next. The Praesidium Helpline gives your organizational leadership team a confidential mechanism to discuss concerns or allegations involving sexual abuse and receive support to navigate next steps.

Make an anonymous call to the Praesidium Helpline for confidential, consultation from a Praesidium expert for your abuse prevention questions and issues. Call toll-free, 866.607.SAFE (7233) any day, any time.

Information discussed during the call will not be shared with your insurance carrier.

WHO IS PRAESIDIUM?

Praesidium is a mission driven risk management firm that helps organizations reduce the risk of sexual abuse as well as the risk of false allegations. With over 25 years of experience and serving thousands of clients in the United States and 11 other countries, our dedicated team of researchers, psychologists, attorneys, social workers, and human resource professionals have analyzed thousands of cases of abuse in organizations and synthesized the latest scientific research.

We know how abuse happens in organizations...and more importantly, how to prevent it.
