Why it matters

A single water or freeze event can disrupt operations, damage equipment or inventory, and create costly cleanup.

Leaks can go undetected without sensors — increasing the potential for property damage, downtime, and loss.

Protect properties from common sources of water damage

- Burst, frozen, or leaking pipes
- HVAC and mechanical system issues, including condensate drain lines, drain pans, and boiler or steam systems
- Hot water heater and utility closet leaks
- Restroom leaks, including toilets, sinks, and faucet connections
- Kitchen and break room leaks, including under-sink plumbing, refrigerators, and dishwashers
- Appliance leaks, including washing machines
- Roofing issues and clogged gutters
- Basement leaks and groundwater intrusion
- Sprinkler system issues
- Sewer and sump pump failures
